

Ordior February Highlights 2026

Good Vibes Only: The Jamaica Band and Caitlin Reilly Drop "Green Pea"

Get ready for a dose of pure positivity with the new animated video for "Green Pea." This soulful reggae collaboration between The Jamaica Band & Caitlin Reilly tells the charming story of a tiny, overlooked pea finding its rhythm. It's a feel-good anthem about self-acceptance and finding your place through the power of music. Vibrant visuals and infectious beats make this a must watch. Check out the animated video on YouTube!

DJ Central TV Expands Global Reach with 13 Major Streaming Networks Now Live

DJ Central TV has officially gone global. Now live across 13 major streaming networks, the channel delivers nonstop electronic music to audiences worldwide, 24/7. From smart TVs to mobile, Seasons 1 through 7 are connecting DJs and fans beyond borders. This expansion amplifies independent artists and marks a bold step in the mission: Music Without Borders. Click below to read the full story and stay tuned!

The Legends Return: Rabbit Saves Real Rock with "Defenders of Rock"

The legendary Aussie glam-rock band Rabbit has returned to reclaim their throne. Following their 50th-anniversary reformation, the band released Defenders of Rock, an album for true rock lovers. This powerhouse album is dedicated to saving authentic rock. Led by iconic Dave Evans, the release captures the high-voltage spirit that first defined the genre. It is a bold mission to keep rock alive. Click below to read more and purchase the album!

Unlocking the Sound: The Global Rise & Legacy of Key Loch

The story of Key Loch is a masterclass in musical evolution. Formed by Damien Reilly and Gabe Rizza, this powerhouse collective brings together over 50 years of industry experience. Featuring vocalists like Sahra and Avery May Parker, they have crafted a universe blending disco, house, and pop. With over 7.5 million streams, their hits prove that high-quality production resonates globally. Watch the story of Key Loch on YouTube.

The Yeehaa Boys are back in a vibrant new animated world!

The Yeehaa Boys are riding into a digital frontier! Blue Pie Records and Ordior have reimagined six iconic country-rock tracks including "Knocking Boots" and "Red Wagon"—as vibrant, cinematic animated music videos. This high-tech upgrade transforms the band's signature honky-tonk energy into a colorful cartoon universe. These visuals blend traditional roots with modern animation, introducing a new generation to the Yeehaa spirit. Click below, read the full article and stream the videos today!

Meet Italian Way Music - A True Icon of Italian Creativity Goes Global!

Italian Way Music, a definitive icon of Italian creativity, is officially going global. Led by prolific composer John Toso, this label boasts a prestigious catalogue spanning electronic, cinematic, and lounge music. Blue Pie Records is proud to bring this extraordinary work to new markets via our global distribution network. From fashion runways to film soundtracks, their music blends heritage with modern innovation. Click below to read the full article!

Ori Iowa Brings a New Wave of Afro Pop with His Latest Track "Energy"

Blue Pie Records has officially released Energy, the latest single from artist Ori Iowa, also known as Femi Akinde. The track features a sophisticated blend of Afro-pop and contemporary Afrobeats, designed for the global market. Produced by industry veteran John Peace, the song combines authentic African foundations with high-end production quality. This release marks a significant milestone in Ori Iowa's career, showcasing his development. Stream the song on SoundCloud today and get lost in the rhythm!

The Art of Preserving Musical History Through Expert Archive and Restoration

There is profound beauty in rediscovering lost sounds. Ordior is dedicated to the meticulous process of Archive and Restoration, ensuring legendary performances are not lost to time. By utilizing state of the art technology, our team breathes new life into aging master tapes and rare recordings. This dedication to quality and precise metadata management ensures that musical legacies remain vibrant and accessible for future generations. Click below and discover how we preserve the past for the future.

New Music to Discover This February

Tekno Miles (Reggae Infused) - EP by The Latin Reggae Band FT. Tekno Miles

La Vie En Rose (Reggae Infused) - The Jamaica Band Plays Edith Piaf

If You Need Me (Reggae Infused) The Jamaica Band Plays Wilson Pickett

www.ordior.com